Collective Kitchen – Sometimes it’s hard to cook a nutritious meal for a small group or for just yourself – it seems like such a bother. Perhaps cooking with a group and taking home meals for the freezer is the answer to that dilemma. Augustana Church 1201 Broadway is hosting -- in cooperation with CHEP – a collective kitchen for people who cook for 1 to 3 people. CHEP sponsors this group and each cooking session is limited to 6 people. If we have more than 6 people who are interested we then create a waiting list of people to call if someone cannot come on a particular day. Please contact Augustana’s church office (306-242-9553) if you are interested in taking part in this.
